This weekend the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, formerly known simply as Christ the King. This solemnity ushers in the 34th and final week of Ordinary Time. In our final passage from Matthew's gospel for this year, Jesus describes the Final Judgment: "…all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats." In last weekend's gospel, we heard the Parable of the Talents, which teaches us that we are to put our gifts and talents at the service of our brothers and sisters. This weekend we learn that if we feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, and help others in any need, then we have properly put our talents to good use and we will inherit the kingdom prepared for us from the foundation of the world. How wonderful that we have our annual Thanksgiving Food Drive on this weekend – it gives us a chance to see today's gospel passage put into action.

Speaking of Thanksgiving, on Thursday this week our nation will pause to give thanks to God. Thanksgiving is the closest thing that we have to a national religious holiday, since people of all faiths will celebrate the day gathering with family and friends and enjoying a special meal. Many families will take a moment to pray and offer thanks to God. Others will let all those gathered express something for which they are grateful. Many Catholics will gather for the Eucharist, a word which means thanksgiving, to make sure that they acknowledge their love and gratitude for God by hearing God's Holy Word and then being nourished by the Body and Blood of Jesus. Here at St. Luke we will celebrate a Thanksgiving Mass on Thursday at 9:30 AM. Please join us! Also, please remember to bring an item of food from your Thanksgiving table for a blessing that can be shared with all who gather with you later in the day.

On behalf of the clergy and staff of the parish, I extend to all parishioners our prayers and best wishes for a blessed and Happy Thanksgiving!

With love and prayers,
Fr. John Costello
