Dear Friends,

I can remember Catholic Schools Week when I was growing up at St. Andrew Avellino. The yearly celebration began in 1974, so it's coming up to its 50th anniversary next year! Those of us who have benefitted from a Catholic School education hopefully have fond memories of teachers and friends and opportunities that helped to form us as the people we have become. Yes, I acknowledge that some of my contemporaries tell stories of more strict disciplinary measures in our schools growing up, but overall the legacy of Catholic Education is one of striving for academic excellence in a faith-filled environment that is marked by charity, mercy, and service. St. Luke School has been serving this local Whitestone community for over 110 years, and we are proud of our faculty and staff, and the support of our parents, as we continue to instill Catholic values and faith while providing a challenging academic curriculum to prepare our students for high school and beyond. Please see the bulletin for information about open houses and other events that will mark Catholic Schools Week here at St. Luke School.

We have a quick re-visit to the Christmas season this week with the celebration of the Presentation of the Lord. February 2nd marks 40 days since Christmas, and the custom 2,000 years ago was for the parents of a first-born son to go to the temple for the mother's purification and to present the child in commemoration of the first-born Jewish males being spared at the Passover. When Joseph and Mary entered the Temple, they encountered Simeon, who prophesied that Jesus will be: "a light for revelation to the Gentiles." Since at least the 5th century, this feast was celebrated with lit candles, and the custom in the Church is to bless candles for liturgical use on this day ... also known as Candlemas ... to recognize the light of Christ among us when we gather together in His Name for worship. Also, the celebration of the Presentation of the Lord has become a day to pray for women and men in consecrated life, since they dedicate their lives to sharing the light of Christ in their words and deeds. Let us remember to pray for Sr. Theresa Agliardi, RSM and Sr. Katherine Burke, CSJ on Thursday this week.

February 3rd is the feast of St. Blaise, and there is a custom of blessing throats on his feast day. He was a bishop in Armenia and was martyred in the year 316. According to an ancient legend, a boy had a fish bone lodged in his throat, and his mother brought him to Blaise. At Blaise's command, he was able to cough up the bone, and so Christians have called upon his intercession for relief from any diseases of the throat. We will offer a St. Blaise blessing on his feast at the 8:30 AM and 12:00 PM Masses.

I am noticing that a number of parishes locally and around the country seem to be returning to parish trips and pilgrimages. In the past, I have led pilgrimages to the Holy Land and different parts of Europe, especially Marian shrines. I know some parishes have organized a parish cruise out of NY as way to have a little summer fun with neighbors and friends. I'm not sure if this has been a part of parish life here at St. Luke, but I'd be curious to see if there is any interest in such activities.

With love and prayers,
Fr. John Costello

A Prayer for Hope

Heavenly father, I am your humble servant,
I come before you today in need of hope.

There are times when I feel helpless,
There are times when I feel weak.

I pray for hope.

I need hope for a better future.

I need hope for a better life.

I need hope for love and kindness.

Some say that the sky is at it's darkest just before the light.

I pray that this is true, for all seems dark.

I need your light, Lord, in every way.

I pray to be filled with your light from head to toe. To bask in your glory.

To know that all is right in the world,
as you have planned, and as you want it to be.

Help me to walk in your light, and live
my life in faith and glory.

In your name I pray,
Amen.

Prayer of St. Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen

Do you feel the Lord calling you to serve as a Lector or Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion?
