JOSEPHINE M. LIUZZO

Dear Friends,

You may have noticed that Mass began last weekend not with a hymn, but with a chanted Antiphon. The Roman Missal is the book used by the priest at the chair and at the altar, and it contains all the prayers approved by the Church for the celebration of Mass. The Roman Missal assigns an Entrance Antiphon and a Communion Antiphon for Mass, usually based on the liturgical season or the nature of the celebration. In the United States, hymns are usually chosen to gather the faithful and begin the liturgy, but the Entrance Antiphon and an accompanying psalm (similar to the Responsorial Psalm during the Liturgy of the Word) is the more traditional way to begin Eucharistic liturgies in the Church. This year during Lent, Mass will begin with a chanted Antiphon and psalm to help us enter into the spirit of this holy season.

“Lord, it is good that we are here.” We hear these words of St. Peter on this Second Sunday of Lent when we proclaim Matthew’s account of the Transfiguration. Every year on the Second Sunday of Lent we hear the story of the Transfiguration: Jesus goes up the mountain with Peter, James, and John, and the Lord is transfigured before them, and Moses and Elijah appear with Him. The Greek word metanoia means “a transformative change of heart” and characterizes what should take place within us during the forty days. The Transfiguration reminds us that Jesus came to fulfill the law and the prophets, and so we open our hearts to the Word of God so that we can be changed by the Lord to be more faithful to the gospel.

There are some upcoming events that I encourage you to attend. On Saturday, March 18th, the Youth Group will sponsor the annual Lenten Soup Supper. Last year the soups were good and plentiful, and it was an enjoyable evening for the community to come together for a simple meal. On Sunday, March 19th, a simple “Irish breakfast” will follow the 12:00 PM Mass to honor St. Patrick. Don’t forget the raffle tickets! A week later, on March 25th, there is a dinner-dance in honor of St. Joseph. There will be a good Italian meal served, and it will be a fun evening for our community to honor St. Joseph.

Looking ahead, with the help of the art teacher, I have asked the students in St. Luke School to draw images of the Stations of the Cross that we can use on Good Friday. In addition to our regular schedule on Good Friday, we will also have a children’s Stations of the Cross at 12:00 PM. We will highlight the children’s artwork, and they will also help to lead in the reflections. I hope that this will encourage families to come together during the Sacred Triduum to pray together as we prepare for Easter.

Next weekend we “spring ahead” one hour, so don’t forget to change your clocks so you are not late for Mass on Sunday!

With love and prayers,
Fr. John Costello

Prayer for Syria & Turkey

Dear God,

In the face of unspeakable tragedy, the suffering of those in our community, and the destruction and loss of life in Syria and Turkey, we pray what the Psalmist wrote in

Psalm 10:

Lord, you know the hopes of the helpless. Surely, you will hear their cries and comfort them. You will bring justice to the orphans and the oppressed.

Comfort the people whose family members and friends have died as a result of these earthquakes. Draw close to them.

Equip believers in Syria and Turkey to show the love of Jesus to their neighbors by helping in tangible ways and sharing the hope of the Gospel.

Inspire generosity in the hearts of people in the United States and across the world, prompting individuals to give the resources and money needed to help communities rebuild.

Empower the Church in America to show radical love for our immediate neighbors who are grieving the loss of life, beauty, and peace in Syria and Turkey.

Let us not turn away, but help us be your hands and feet to love those who are suffering and bear witness to your presence with them.

God, hear our prayer.

Amen.

Prayer for Ukraine

Heavenly Father, Your Son taught us “Blessed are the Peacemakers for they Shall be called Children of God.” In this Time of great worry, we pray that Your Holy Spirit sustains the people of the Ukraine to be vigilant and dedicated to peace and justice. Grant their leaders wisdom and prudence - strength and perseverance to defend their land from all adversity and foreign attacks. Help us all to live according to your Divine Will.

O God, our Father, in the days to come, we ask you to comfort the suffering, heal the wounded, and accept the souls of the faithful departed into Your Heavenly Kingdom. We ask that the Most Holy Mother of God extend her blessed mantle of protection over the Ukraine.

Amen

The Virgin and Child.
Church of St. Cyril,
Kiev, Ukraine.
