First Sunday of Lent

Dear Friends,

On the First Sunday of Lent we always hear about the temptations of Jesus in the desert. In Year B we hear from Mark, the shortest of the gospels. Instead of a detailed narrative, Mark gives us one sentence: “The Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert, and he remained in the desert for forty days, tempted by Satan.” While the passage is very brief, we remember from the other synoptic Gospels (Matthew and Luke) that Jesus was tempted by Satan with bread and power, but He commands Satan: “Get away, Satan!” Unfortunately, it’s not so easy for us; we, too, are tempted by Satan, but instead of casting him off, we are lured by his temptations and then sin by our words and deeds. The more we hand ourselves over to Jesus, the more we are able to turn away from sin and be faithful to the gospel.

As you know the Annual Catholic Appeal begins every year during the season of Lent. Since the forty days are a special time of charitable giving, the Appeal gives us a chance to be good stewards to help others who are in need. The good work of faith formation, migration services, priestly formation, youth ministry, and other pastoral services are supported by the funding generated by the Annual Catholic Appeal. I have made the personal decision to increase my pledge this year, and, at the same time, I am increasing my weekly offering to the parish. I know these are challenging times, but I pray that all of us working together can make a difference throughout the diocese, but also locally here at St. Luke.

This is President’s Week, so many local schools, including St. Luke School, are enjoying a mid-winter recess. Fr. Chin will be away this week, and, since school is closed, there is no Mass at 8:30 AM on Tuesday and Thursday this week. I know that many families will take advantage of the break to either flee from winter weather or go somewhere to enjoy skiing and other cold weather activities. I pray that it will be a restful week for our families. Please don’t forget to go to church if you go away. You can find local churches by using masstimes.org. I suggest that you confirm any schedules you find by calling the parish or downloading their most recent bulletin.

I need to apologize. As you know, we mailed out the tax statements for contributions to the parish during 2023. Although all the offering envelopes were properly scanned, the last few batches of the year were not properly closed out, and so many people who gave special end-of-year donations did not get the proper credit. New letters will be sent out for offerings over $1,000. Anyone else who needs an updated statement is asked to please call the rectory. We apologize for this inconvenience, and we hope to rectify the problem as soon as possible.

Every year, Sr. Katherine, Sr. Theresa, and Mary Pollini put together a Lenten program on Tuesdays to help our parish enter more deeply into the Forty Days. Next Tuesday, February 20th, there will be gospel sharing after the noon Mass, and then a presentation led by Sister Mary Hughes, OP. The full schedule is contained in the bulletin, and we look forward to our Lenten Journey with Jesus.

Love and prayers,
Fr. John Costello

Mary Hughes OP is a member of the Sisters of St. Dominic, Congregation of the Holy Cross, Amityville, NY. Her early ministerial activity was in education, serving as a teacher, a catechist, an assistant principal and then a principal. After completing advanced studies, she ministered as a teacher educator both at St. Francis College in Brooklyn and then at Iona College in New Rochelle. She was chairing the Education Department at Iona when she was first elected Prioress of her community, 1995-2001. Iona College then invited her back to serve as the Special Executive Assistant to the President. The Dominican community elected her once again to serve as their Prioress from 2007-2013. It was during these years that she was elected to the LCWR presidency. (2009-2012) She subsequently served on the staff of LCWR as their Director of Transitional Services. She has been a consultant to religious communities as they seek to further their life and mission. Most recently, she was appointed Interim President of Dominican University in Orangeburg, New York.

DAILY BREAD

DISCOVER THE EUCHARIST IN SCRIPTURE

Now Available on FORMED:

This Lenten video series will radically transform your love for the Blessed Sacrament.

Don't miss our video series Daily Bread: Discover the Eucharist in Scripture, coming to FORMED this Lent! Based on Dr. Brant Pitre's acclaimed book Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist, this video series will radically transform your love for the Blessed Sacrament.

Daily Bread: Discover the Eucharist in Scripture demonstrates that our understanding of the Eucharist dates back to the earliest Jewish Christians. Far from being a later invention of the Catholic Church, the Eucharist is the fulfillment of many Old Testament promises.
