Veni Sancte Spiritus! Come Holy Spirit! In this final week of the Easter Season, the whole Church prays intensely to be renewed in the Holy Spirit. The Spirit came at Pentecost 2000 years ago and remains with the Church to our day. As we recall that event, we treasure the gift of the Spirit we have already received through Baptism and Confirmation, and we pray that the whole Church may be set on fire with the love of God through the power of the Holy Spirit in our midst.

In most of the United States, the Ascension is celebrated today. In New York and a few other Church provinces, we continue to celebrate the Ascension on Thursday, and so for us today is the 7th Sunday of Easter. The 17th chapter of John’s Gospel is known as the High Priestly Prayer of Jesus. He prays this prayer in the presence of his apostles at the Last Supper. As Jesus prays to the Father, he speaks of joy and our consecration in the truth. Our consecration sets us apart from the world. We are invited to be a part of the special relationship between the Father and the Son, and Jesus promises the Father that He will protect and guard us. Shortly after this prayer, Jesus departs for the Garden of Gethsemane to enter into His Passion.

In the passage from the Acts of the Apostles, it’s time to choose a replacement for Judas Iscariot. After he betrayed Jesus, Judas killed himself by hanging himself. As the apostles begin their sacred ministry as the first bishops of the Church, they choose Matthias to replace Judas, thus making him the first successor of the apostles. All bishops around the world are considered successors of the apostles, with the Pope specifically being the successor of St. Peter. The challenges of the Church can be daunting at times, and so we pray for those who are already bishops and also for those who are being chosen as bishops, that they may make themselves available to serve the Church faithfully despite being asked to embrace the cross in their service.

When I raised the issue of websites and apps that are helpful and inspirational, someone stressed that she found Fr. Mike Schmitz’s podcasts: Bible in a Year and Catechism in a Year to be very good. Not only does Fr. Schmitz read the Bible and Catechism, but he also offers commentary and instruction on the passages as he reads them, so he helps to make the Bible and the Catechism more accessible to people. You don’t have to wait until January 1st to start either of those podcasts; they are completely available for use at any time.

I join the rest of the clergy and staff of our parish in wishing all mothers, grandmothers, godmothers, adoptive mothers, stepmothers, and all motherly women a blessed and happy Mother’s Day! I am grateful to the members of the Parish Pastoral Council who are providing a plant sale for us today. We also join with our First Communicants in honoring our Blessed Mother this weekend. May Mary intercede for all of our mothers, whether living or deceased, and help all of us always to draw closer to her Son, Jesus. God bless our Mothers!

With love and prayers,
Fr. John Costello
