Dear Friends,

It's good to be back home after making my annual retreat, spending some days with good priest friends on vacation, and then participating in a pilgrimage to Fatima in Portugal. This was my first time visiting Portugal, and I really enjoyed it very much. It's a beautiful country, and it was a blessing to celebrate Mass in the chapel of the apparitions and to join in the Rosary procession in the evening. We also visited the birthplace of St.

Anthony of Padua and many other religious sites as well. As I've talked with some parishioners, there seems to be some interest in a parish pilgrimage to Europe, perhaps focusing on Marian shrines. (I know there is also interest in eventually going to the Holy Land, but I don't think it's a good time yet to try to arrange a pilgrimage there.) Others have asked about a parish cruise vacation out of NY. I'll come up with a way to get input from parishioners about both possibilities and see where it goes from there.

The sixth season of The Chosen is being released in mid-November, but I have acquired permission to show the videos earlier. For now, I have access to episode 1. I will show this episode in the church on Monday, October 19th at 7:00 PM. The sixth season picks up from the arrest of Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane and will present the Passion of the Lord through to His crucifixion. I am sure it will be a powerful season in many ways. All are welcome to join us for this special event.

In addition to being the month of the Rosary, October is also dedicated to Respect Life issues. While the issue of abortion is a significant part of the Church's concerns about the dignity of human life, we are concerned about the whole spectrum ... from conception to natural death. New York State has joined others across the nation in allowing for Medical Aid in Dying, which is really about assisted suicide. Recently a botched attempt at capital punishment by lethal injection made national news, which brings the whole topic of the death penalty into the public debate. As Catholics, we believe that God is the Author of both life and death, and our Church teachings center on God's design for Creation. Let us turn to Mary for her intercession for our nation and for the world, that we will respect God's design for all life from conception to natural death.

In the gospel this weekend, Jesus tells a parable about a king who planned a wedding feast for his son. When the invited guests refused his invitation, the king remarked, "The feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy to come. Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find." When others were invited, one came but did not wear his wedding garment, and so he was cast out by the king: "'Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.' Many are invited, but few are chosen." The invitation to the kingdom is not a passive one. We need to prepare ourselves for the kingdom in all we say and do. Our wedding garment was given to us at baptism; it's up to us to keep it clean and pure so that one day we will be welcomed into the banquet feast of heaven.

With love and prayers,

Fr. John Costello

MISSION STATEMENT

As a community of believers in Jesus Christ and in Communion with the Universal Church, we strive to follow the Lord's command to love God and one another.

Rooted in word and sacraments as we grow together a Eucharistic community inviting all to the Good News of Jesus.

Our Church is open for private prayer from 8:00 am to 3:00 pm
each weekday.

Take advantage of the opportunity to spend some quiet time in prayer and reflection.

Monday to Friday, at 11:15am parishioners pray the Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet before Mass. All are welcome!
If you cannot join in person,
please join them spiritually.

If you wish to register as a parishioner of St. Luke Church, please stop by the Rectory Office during regular office hours where you can pick up a census card which can be filled out or returned by mail or in the Sunday Collection Basket.

You can even download the
